

B

Come up with distinct voices for the different characters in the book. Try using them in your home!

Discuss your favorite scene from the book.

Play charades! Reenact a funny scene from the book without using words.

Design a new cover for the book.

Build a reading fort together!
bit.ly/readfort

I

Read a picture book about a creature, place, or other topic found in this novel.

Correctly answer one the Trivia Questions.

Write a journal entry from the point of view of one of the characters.

Make bookmarks together!
bit.ly/diybmarx

Tell a friend or family member why they should read this book.

N

Write a poem about a character from the book. Try a haiku, acrostic, or limerick!

Get out of your house and read a chapter out “in the wild” together!

Write a letter to one of the characters from the book.

What would the main character do? Talk about a situation and discuss how they would handle it.

G

Write a fan letter to the author, illustrator, or publisher of the book —or send a message on social media!

Find a quote in the book that’s worthy of being shared. Put it on a banner, poster, or even a t-shirt!

Try a food mentioned in the book. Try to recreate your own version of it if you can!

Write a book review of the book and share it with your teacher or school librarian.

Find a scene from the book that is not illustrated and try to draw it!

O

Get your whole family to read together in your pajamas!

Hot Seat! Pretend to be a character from the book and let someone interview you.

Come up with an alternate ending for the book.

Make a list of new words you discover while reading together and learn their definitions.

Share a picture of your family reading with @readtothem.

