

Book Connections

Peter Butts, Children's Librarian, Three Rivers Public Library

November 2021

November is Picture Book Month

We have over 4000 picture books you can use in your classroom to teach story structure, for social and emotional learning, as mentor texts for writing assignments, and align with outcomes in math, science, and social studies.

Picture Book Month website:
<https://picturebookmonth.com/>
PDF teacher's guide:
<https://tinyurl.com/56zhfxjm>

Do you need a library card for your classroom?
All TRCS employees qualify for a free teacher card.
Bring this form to the library.

HOURS

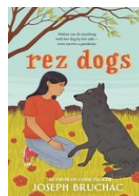

Monday-Friday, 10 am. to 5:30 pm.
Saturday, 10 am. to 4 pm.

<https://threeriverslibrary.biblionix.com/catalog/>
Use the last four digits of your phone number as you pin number, search the catalog and place your reserve. Click here for help.

... Native American Heritage Month

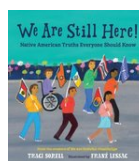

<https://nativeamericanheritagemonth.gov/>

Bruchac, Joseph. Rez Dogs.
Malian visits her grandparents on the reservation when the COVID-19 pandemic hits. In addition to her remote learning for school, she learns the ways of her people from her grandparents and the local dog, Malsum, who guards their house.

Craft, Aimee. Treaty Words.
A grandfather teaches his granddaughter about the bonds of reciprocity and renewal behind their people's treaty with the earth.

Sorrel, Traci. We Are Still Here!
Kids from different tribes present historical and contemporary struggles and victories to their classmates, each ending with the powerful refrain: we are still here.

Paleja, S. N. Native Americans: a Visual Exploration.
Infographics and maps give the big picture of the lives of North America's first peoples from their arrival to today.

THREE RIVERS PUBLIC LIBRARY

— READ. LEARN. DREAM. —

