

Book Connections

Peter Butts, Children's Librarian, Three Rivers Public Library

October 2021

What's new at your public library?

We celebrated our one year anniversary downtown with several new offerings.

Sign up for a Hoopla account with your library card to a digital collection of hundreds of thousands of books and movies with no waiting or holds.

LaunchPads are preloaded tablets with educational games and applications for families to check out and enjoy at home. We currently have 20 titles covering early literacy skills, early elementary language arts and math, STEM, Spanish and other languages.

Playaways are preloaded audiobooks and Wonderbooks are their picture book equivalent with the easy to use player attached to the inside front cover.

ClicBot programmable robots for kids. The Guys Who Give and the TRPL Friends donated two sets. The library will be offering individual orientation sessions starting in October. Email me if you are interested in borrowing them sometime in the second half of the school year.

Community Conversations

We still have copies of the book if you know of families who would be interested in participating.

The community conversation on the book will take place at Huss School on Saturday, October 23rd at 2 pm. Sign up on EventBrite.

Do you need a library card for your classroom? All TRCS employees qualify for a free teacher card. Bring this form to the library.
